RETHINKING relationships

Welcome to Highland Church!

I am so glad that you are here today. I am really excited to share with you a series of messages that I have titled "Rethinking Relationships." God put these messages on my heart months ago and I believe they will change the way we view relationships. Everywhere I look I see people hurting because of a relationship that has gone bad. I think everyone of us can remember a time when a relationship fell apart and caused us a lot pain and suffering.

The Bible has some very interesting and challenging things to say about how we are to relate to God and one another. In this series we will take a serious look at this subject matter from God's point of view and learn some practical things we can do to develop healthy relationships that last. So, please make plans to join us for all 6 messages and watch God make a difference in the relationships in your life.

Blessings,

Pastor Dan
